Gift Acceptance Policy

The Garfield Park Conservatory Alliance (GPCA) seeks outright gifts and future gift commitments that are consistent with our mission. Contributions generally will be accepted from individuals, partnerships, corporations, organizations, government agencies or other entities without limitations unless acceptance of the gifts could be considered inconsistent with the organization's beliefs or values. The GPCA will accept gifts for unrestricted, restricted and endowment purposes. A selection of named gift opportunities may be made available to donors when appropriate. These opportunities represent a tangible means of recognizing a donor's investment in the GPCA. When gifts with restrictions are offered the restrictions will be honored. These restrictions will be detailed in the donor's gift or pledge commitment letter. Donor information that should be private and confidential will not be made public.
