Frequently Asked Questions – helping you prepare for booking a visit to the outdoor gardens at the Garfield Park Conservatory

1. How can GPC re-open safely?
   - In partnership with the Chicago Park District, the Mayor’s Office and the state we are complying with guidelines and directives due to COVID-19 and implementing new business operation protocols.
   - All member and general public visits must be pre-booked in advance.
   - Decreased capacity and timed entry will be implemented to manage the number of visitors per hour.
   - Timed entry will be in 90 minute intervals from 11am to 5:30pm with the last entry at 5:30pm. The Conservatory will close at 7pm.
   - This plan will only work with your cooperation. By respecting protocols together, we can offer all visitors an opportunity to enjoy nature in the gardens.

2. How do I plan a visit?
   - You must book a reservation for a specified date and time online through our website here or by calling 773-638-1766.
   - Reservations will open for members will begin on July 1, 2020 at 9am.
   - Reservations for general public will begin on July 8, 2020 at 9am.
   - Visits remain free, but you can make a donation when you make your reservation. Suggested donation is $5 per child and $10 per adult. Donations are encouraged online at time of reservation and welcome on site. Any donation transactions on site with credit/debit card will be completed at least six feet from staff member. Cash donations can be dropped in a donation box (no cash handling by staff permitted).

3. What if I book a visit, but then need to change or cancel my reservation?
   - If you are no long able to attend at your scheduled time, please cancel your reservation. If you need to make a change to your booking, you have the ability to adjust your reservation 1 hour prior to your visit.

4. Can I get a raincheck in case of inclement weather?
   - Your visit reservation will proceed rain or shine. Please dress for the weather. In the case of inclement weather, consider making a reservation for a new date if you no longer plan to attend. The building will remain closed.
